

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

USA,

Plaintiff,

v.

BRYAN GILBERT HENDERSON,

Defendant.

Case No. 15-cr-00565-WHO-1

ORDER GRANTING TRIAL CONTINUANCE

Re: Dkt. No. 58

Defendant Bryan Henderson moves to continue the jury trial set for November 7, 2016 so that he can seek to compel discovery and then have a stipulated facts bench trial on December 19, 2016. Although he does not specify the nature of the information needed from the FBI, or explain why he could not file his discovery motion sooner, his is one of a large number of child pornography cases involving the FBI's use of a "Network Investigative Technique" to ascertain information about his identity, and a number of discovery disputes are apparently pending throughout the country. He only seeks a brief delay. In this instance, the ends of justice support the continuance request and it is GRANTED.

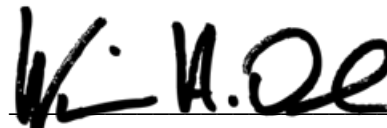

The trial date of November 7, 2016 is VACATED and re-set for a stipulated facts bench trial on December 19, 2016 at 9 a.m. The pre-trial conference is rescheduled for December 12, 2016 at 2 p.m.

Defendant shall file his discovery motion no later than October 7, 2016. The government may have until November 7, 2016 to respond. Defendant may reply by November 14, 2016. I will hear argument at 2 p.m. on November 28, 2016 (a special setting).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
